If you want to place two or more pictures side-by-side across the width of the page, putting them into a table with the appropriate number of columns allows you to place their captions beneath them correctly (Figure 2).

Pictures in the table should be centred horizontally and vertically. Figures have to be made in high quality, which is suitable for reproduction and print (in order to achieve good quality reproduction it is recommended that pictures be scanned in at 300 dpi). Please insert picture with Insert command. Generally, please, make sure that all the objects are actually embedded in your file and not just linked to other files on your hard disk.
